The Listening Post

FOLKS WILL want to hear about the good their money is doing in the flooded areas, and the from Red Cross area directors in suffering it has alleviated. Reports the flooded districts received today place the total number of families now looking to them for immediate relief at 100,000, which is equivalent to 450,000 persons. This money has placed more than 100 nurses who are caring for the sick and aiding with immunization programs in 10 refugee centers at Springfield, Mass. At Hartford, Conn., 21 nurses are assisting with wholesale typhoid inoculations. At North Vandergrift, Pa., sanitary conditions are extremely bad and at the request of the Governor the Red Cross is shipping tank loads of water from Pittsburgh to that town, in order that there may be pure drinking water for the people. This money is also being used in furnishing shelter, food, clothing, repairing damaged homes for people with no other sources of financial aid when the flood waters recede, and the million and one things necessary to be done following a flood such as this one has been. You may rest assured this money you have so generously donated is being well spent.

ALL ABOUT "THIRTY."
JUST AS carpenters know about building homes, shoe repairers know about repairing shoes, grocers know about groceries, etc., just so newspaper folks know about "thirty." Since the editorial in yesterday's issue of this paper, several people have asked me what "thirty" meant used the way it was by the editor in his editorial. For a long while after I became connected with newspaper work I must confess I did not know this myself. But one day I asked and this is what I learned: It simply means, "that's all, there isn't any more." It was first used by telegraphers in telegraphing newspaper stories. "Thirty" signed at the end of an article meant that that was the end of that story. Later newspaper reporters took it up, and it became universally used by them as well as by telegraphers to signify that that was the end of the story.

ONE OF the most pitiful sights I've seen in a long time was the man who entered the office this morning begging; I could not tell whether he was 21 or 71, so distorted were his features and limbs. He walked on all fours like an animal, had only one leg, which was twisted and swollen, and could only stand up on his knees.

MISS KATHLEEN Winters, representing Fulton High School in the solo voice contests in the Inter-scholastic contests being held at Murray State College yesterday today, received the highest rating in that contest yesterday, which was "excellent." Richard Williams sang in the baritone contest for Fulton High and also got the highest rating in that contest, which was "superior." This makes them eligible to sing in the State Contest in Lexington in April.

ACCORDING TO talk heard on the street, the City Dads have about concluded to re-instate the police car, operating of which was suspended at the last council meeting. According to the dope, a budget will be arranged allowing a fixed sum per month to cover costs of operation, and when the allowance is spent in any month, the car will be retired from service until the beginning of the next month. The car now being used may be replaced by a new one as a number of citizens have promised to make donations to cover the gap between the trade-in price and the cost of a new car. Something like $100.00 is still lacking and any others who might be interested can give their donations to any member of the Police department. Citizens in general have expressed themselves as welcoming the return of this car which will enable police to patrol not only the business district, but the residence section as well.

HOFFMAN SEEKS TO GRANT BRUNO SECOND REPRIEVE

CHARGES THAT HAUPTMANN CASE 'RECKED WITH UNFAIRNESS, PASSION AND PREJUDICE' IN ITS ENTIRETY

Trenton, N. J., March, 27.—(AP).—Governor Harold G. Hoffman was disclosed tonight to be seeking outside legal advice on his right to grant a second reprieve to Bruno Richard Hauptmann. At the same time, it was reported, he was known his attitude tomorrow on the Governor's offer to extend Hauptmann's life beyond Tuesday night if shown he has a legal right to do so, will say he cannot consent to such an action.

Both Hoffman and Wilentz, it was learned, have been consulting highly recognized legal authorities in the state on the legality of another executive reprieve.

Trenton, N. J., March, 27.—(AP).—Governor Harold G. Hoffman laid the basis for a possible second reprieve for Bruno Richard Hauptmann today with a bitter attack on his Flemington trial which drew from one of the prosecutors the retort that he was acting from "purely political" motives.

Charging the whole Hauptmann case "recked with unfairness, passion and prejudice," the Governor said he stood ready to save Hauptmann from execution next Tuesday night if the prosecutors would show him a legal way to do it.

Anthony M. Hauke, Jr., Hunterdon county prosecutor, replied sharply with this question:

"Why is the Governor now so concerned about a reprieve when he disregarded the law in granting the first?"

Attorney General David T. Wilentz, chief prosecutor of the convicted killer of the Lindbergh baby, who did not oppose the first reprieve, said he would disclose his attitude toward a new reprieve tomorrow morning.

May Ask New Trial
Meanwhile C. Lloyd Fisher, chief defense attorney, said he had sufficient evidence to ask for a new trial if the Court of Pardons should reject Hauptmann's new plea for clemency now before it.

He did not disclose the nature of the evidence.

Hauptmann himself, visited in his death cell by Col. Mark O. Kimberling, prison warden, and the prisoner's wife, Mrs. Anna Hauptmann, was quoted as saying he was more confident than ever that "something will happen" to prevent his execution at 8 o'clock Tuesday night.

A more extended article will appear in Monday's issue of the Leader.

SEVERED BODY OF MILBURN MAN IS FOUND ON TRACK

LOYD RIDDLE STRUCK BY TRAIN IN PRINCETON YARDS HELD ACCIDENTAL

Arlington, Ky., March, 27.—(Special).—The severed body of a man, apparently run over by a train in the Illinois Central railroad yards in Princeton last night, was identified late today as that of Lloyd Riddle, of Milburn, after Coroner Robert Morgan of Caldwell county, had returned a verdict of accidental death following an investigation. Riddle was about 45. Identification was made by means of an express receipt in the pocket of his clothes. Relatives in this county were at the loss to explain why Riddle was in Princeton as he had supposedly left his home in Milburn to visit his half-brother, Kinny Riddle, in Cairo, Ill. No light on how the accident occurred was shed at the coroner's investigation except that Riddle had apparently waited around the yards sometime previously for the northbound train. No one witnessed the accident. The body was badly mangled, having been severed and the right arm was cut off.

Riddle is survived by three brothers, Kinney, of Cairo, Ill., Edgar and Roy Riddle of Milburn. Funeral rites will be held at the Emmons church tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock and burial will be in the Emmons cemetery.

K. R. LOWE AND R. C. PEEPLES NAMED ON TVA COMMITTEE

Representatives of 34 West Tennessee towns, at a joint meeting held at Martin, Tenn., last night, instructed a permanent committee to contact all community governing bodies in the territory in an effort to secure TVA power distribution in this section. K. R. Lowe and Raymond Peoples attended from Fulton.

The session attended by 200 people, heard addresses on the advantages offered by TVA from Franklin Yates of Union City, Mayor John Reeves of Paris, King Webb of Dresden, J. S. Riley of Ridesley, Bob Fox of Obion and P. D. Harris of Greenfield.

Gibson County has contracted with the government, it was stated, for power to be distributed in four or five counties and adjacent territories that South Fulton could obtain this power at the regular TVA rate with a 1 cent surcharge to take care of the liquidating of the money that the Gibson County organization has to expend in order to purchase the distribution line.

It will be impossible for the city of Fulton, under the present set-up to hook up with this TVA power until other arrangements have been made.

Mr. Lowe and Mr. Peoples were appointed on the committee to contact all communities in an effort to secure TVA power distribution in this section.

SEEKS FULL INTERPRETATION OF THE COMMUNITY CHEST FUND

The Board of Directors of the Community Chest met in regular session yesterday afternoon in the Mayor's office in the City Hall to transact all business coming before the Board. Ten members were present, and the meeting was presided over by its Chairman, Rev. J. S. Robinson.

Upon motion duly made and seconded, Miss Dorothy Granberry was elected Secretary of the Community Chest, to take the minutes of each meeting and attend to the secretarial duties. All bills which had been O. K'd by the disbursing committee were read and allowed. The different cases aided by this fund were discussed by the Board and all matters pertaining to the disbursing of the funds of the Community Chest in the best possible manner so as to do the most good were discussed.

To date a total of $104.10 has been taken from this fund and applied where needed. $50.50 has been spent for hospitalization, $47.25 for groceries, $5.85 for coal and 50 cents for a room for an old man. Motion was made that the amount spent each month out of this chest be published in this newspaper.

W. R. Butt, Chairman of the Disbursing Committee, in a few brief remarks, asked the Board to instruct him and his committee as to what type case should receive benefit of this money, emergency cases or cases of a permanent character. Mr. Butt said:

"I have been connected with this kind of work in the city of Fulton for the past twenty-one years, and I have learned something about the indigents of the town and other persons that prey on a fund of this kind. I have tried to do as much free work for the Community and City as any man, and an egoist enough to think that I have done this; if I am right I want my friends to tell me, and if I am wrong, I want them to tell me. The committee, with myself as Chairman, T. T. Boaz and Rev. Robinson as members, appointed for the purpose of disbursing this money, has been criticized, and I feel that when I go out and give my time and energy to a thing of this kind that if I am wrong I should be told, and if I am right I should be told, and I want this Board right here this afternoon to interpret the rules as laid down by this organization when it was first made. It was my understanding we were to help only emergency cases. We have had appeals from certain families in the town and our committee has said 'No,' and the citizens, some of them, who have contributed to this fund,

SPEED, THRILLS ABOUND IN "13 HOURS BY AIR"

Drama in the sky is the theme of "Thirteen Hours By Air", which is showing Sunday and Monday at the Orpheum Theatre—and everyone who enjoys his thrills in tense, punch, packed doses will have the time of his life at the film. Warner Bros. were successful in bringing this outstanding attraction to Fulton on its National Release date.

For "Thirteen Hours By Air" starts off at a terrific pace, and like the New York-to-San Francisco plane on which most of its action takes place, roars on at high speed up to the very finish.

Director Mitchell Leisen, furnished with a grand cast and an equally grand script, has made the most of every opportunity. His cast included Fred MacMurray, that casual young man who has risen spectacularly to stardom in a little over one year; pretty blonde Joan Bennett; flutery ZaSu Pitts; and ingratiating John Howard, to mention a few. It is script by Kenyon Nicholson, who wrote it around Bogart Roger's magazine serial.

"Thirteen Hours By Air" is the story of romance and intrigue aboard a transcontinental passenger plane. It's an oddly-assorted lot of passengers the ship is carrying—a girl who says she's a socialite; a nine-year-old heir to a fortune of millions; a "doctor" who reveals a surprising lack of information about medicine; and two other suspicious-looking male passengers.

MacMurray, a pilot "deadheaded" half-way across the continent to fly the plane the remainder of its journey, soon gets to work solving the problem of these identities. He accuses Miss Bennett, the socialite, of being involved in a jewel robbery, he almost gets shot when he refuses the offer of one of his male passengers to set the plane down in a remote spot; he gets into a fist fight with another passenger. Meanwhile, the young heir is making life miserable for everyone in the cabin.

HITLER LAYS DOWN NEW CHALLENGE IN ELECTION ADDRESS

DECLARES 'WILL NOT RELINQUISH SO MUCH AS ONE ROOM IN A GERMAN HOUSE'

Adolf Hitler, in a setting of steel—the great Krupp works of Essen—threw down another iron challenge Friday to the statesmen of Europe.

"I will not relinquish so much as one room in a German house not permit any outsider to say what shall happen here," he shouted.

His audience of 870,000 workers in the plants were German cannons were built in the World War roared their approval. Loudspeakers carried his words outside the huge plant as Hitler spoke, standing on the chassis of a locomotive.

His speech brought to a climax a feverish Nazi propaganda for Sunday's Reichstag election, which the Nazis view as a plebiscite upon Hitler's violation of the Locarno Treaty by remilitarization of the Rhineland.

The Franco-Soviet mutual defense pact, which Hitler said was the reason he scrapped Locarno became formally effective when signed pacts were exchanged by diplomats in Paris.

Thus France will have Russia' huge army at its call if German makes an "unprovoked attack."

Joachim von Ribbentrop, Hitler's special ambassador, after apparently fruitless talks in London returned to the Reich to report. He will aid Der Fuehrer in mapping his promised "positive" proposals to be delivered next Tuesday.

The crisis is deadlocked, at least until Hitler's program is made known. Germans were reported concerned over Britain's reaffirmation of her obligations under the Locarno Treaty.

Premier Mussolini disclosed he is willing to talk preliminary peace terms with the representatives of the League of Nations but has an imposing series of demands, including lifting of sanctions and a reversal of the League's decision that Italy was guilty of aggression.

TO PREACH SPECIAL SERMON

Tomorrow night at the First Baptist Church, Rev. Woodrow Fuller will preach the final sermon in the special series concerning "Love, Marriage, and Home." The subjects already discussed are: "We Want to Get Married," "Finding a Wife," "Securing a Husband," "Why Some Marriages Collapse," and the subject for tomorrow night will be "Home Our Home."

This message on the home will be of interest to all members of the family. Home should be the happiest place in the world. We hope to think of some ways in which the home can perform its real function and at the same time provide for its members fun and joy.

The ordinance of baptism will be administered at the close of the sermon.

GIRL BAND IS A SCREEN NOVELTY

In "Dance Band," the film currently on the screen of the Strand Theatre, co-starring Charles "Buddy" Rogers—America's boy friend—and June Clyde, there is real screen novelty in the lovely forms of a beautiful girl dance band. A dozen or so of scantily attired (?) honies put hot licks into their music and turn out some peppy numbers.

The story of rival dance bands headed by the handsome Buddy and the lovely June has freshness and novelty in all departments and its twinkling tunes, its daring diversions, the exciting "Valparaiso" that is taking the country by storm, are all the accompaniment of its sparkling music. This picture will be shown Sunday and Monday at the Strand on Lake Street.

COMMENT

A LESSON THAT MIGHT BE LEARNED
Those who have occasion to make a trip to Hickman these days, and for several weeks past, can witness a real object lesson in the false economy of building low type roads. The Hickman road was perhaps one of the best gravel roads in this section, and was a source of pride to every person in the county. It was our first road, I believe, and back in the days when it was built it was visited by everybody, and all of us felt justifiable pride in its construction. It served the needs of the day well, but now, with traffic what it is and what it will become later, one can see that that form of road will not stand up. A year or so ago it was resurfaced by the so-called black-topping process. That made it a better road, but at same time made its upkeep and repair a bit more complicated. The past winter, with its severe temperatures, practically wrecked the road in many places. Repair work is proceeding now at various places, but it will be a matter of weeks, perhaps months, before it can become the road it was. One only has to drive off the pavement where the Hickman road leaves Highway 51, in order to realize the vast difference between the two roads. On the pavement there is scarcely a mark of disintegration. No repair work will be necessary on it because of the unprecedented winter which this section has just passed through. On the other road—the old gravel and blacktop part, repairs will have to be made on many miles before it can become as good as it was. Another winter such as the past one will again wreck it without doubt. I am told

Here is what the manufacturer from whom we buy our roofing has to say:

Chevrolet's high-compression valve-in-head engine gives economy without equal!

Every test proves it's more economical... Every Chevrolet owner knows it's more economical... And every person will readily understand these simple A-B-C reasons why it is more economical

The Chevrolet engine is the most economical automobile engine produced today, because (1) it is a six-cylinder engine, and (2) it is a valve-in-head six-cylinder engine. Its six cylinders use less gas and oil—in fact, use the least gas and oil—because six cylinders are the most economical combination used in modern automobiles. Its valve-in-head design cuts gasoline consumption still lower because there is less loss of heat through the walls of the combustion chamber in valve-in-head engines, and the advanced construction of the Chevrolet engine gives maximum heat (or power) saving. Most important of all, Chevrolet's more efficient cooling system, pressure stream oiling and the greater accessibility of all working parts result in more dependable operation, over a longer period of time, with the lowest maintenance costs.
